

PARIS-VATRY in CHAMPAGNE

Prime location in a prosperous, dynamic region

Paris-Vatry Airport is exceptionally situated in the heart of Europe in France's Champagne region. The latter's sound economic identity, resolute focus on the future, remarkable geostrategic position and dynamic natural backdrop - where history, culture and art de vivre prevail - provide Paris-Vatry with a solid base upon which to build and develop well into the future.

▲ Geostrategic position coupled with leading-edge infrastructure

- ✎ Close proximity to key EU population groups
- ✎ Direct link to EU high speed passenger rail network
- ✎ Region home to nine other top-ranking business and logistics parks

▲ Region resolutely focused on the future and economic excellence

- ✎ Industrial and agricultural interests in the region together form a centre of global competitiveness dedicated to the development of non-food natural resources.
- ✎ Industrial stakeholders and research laboratories collaborate within centres of excellence.
- ✎ Higher learning and vocational training curricula evolve based on development strategies and manpower needs across the region.

▲ Effervescent, natural backdrop steeped in history, culture and art de vivre

- ✎ Department of Marne ranks first in France for use of flowers in exterior decoration and landscaping.
- ✎ Diverse, well preserved natural heritage of 700 000 hectares of woodland, 3 regional nature parks, 10 000 hectares of lakes and waterways, including the largest man-made lake in Europe.
- ✎ Region marked by history from the Gallo-Roman era to the Carolingian empire, from the crowing of the French monarchs to the Franco-German reconciliation. Champagne-Ardenne is home to four UNESCO heritage sites which bear witness to the events having forged Europe over the centuries.
- ✎ Abundance of sporting and leisure facilities, including 10 golf courses, vast hunting and fishing venues, two localities voted the most sports-oriented in France by L'Équipe newspaper, 16 theatres, 19 museums, 92 cinemas, 6 festivals of national and international renown...
